

IT'S IN THE BAG

Gather everyday objects from around the house, such as a wet washcloth, a comb, a hot piece of toast, and an apple. Put the objects in a bag and have your child describe each object. Is it wet or dry? Cold or hot? Smooth or rough?

This game will help with language development and sensory skills as explorers learn about different scientific properties and have fun!